Ecclesiastical leader’s Recommendation

Dear Ecclesiastical Leader,

This student, while attending BYU-H’s HOLOMUA program, will be a guest of the university. We are asking that you conduct a private, detailed interview to ensure that the student understands the expectations of the Honor Code, is currently living by them, and will continue to abide by those standards while participating in HOLOMUA. Please make your recommendations based on the student’s current standards.

I have interviewed this student with respect to living the BYU Honor Code and Dress and Grooming and Residential living Standards.

☐ I DO RECOMMEND this student for HOLOMUA.

☐ I DO NOT RECOMMEND this student for HOLOMUA.

CHURCH EDUCATIONAL SYSTEM HONOR CODE

Brigham Young University, Brigham Young University—Hawaii, Brigham Young University–Idaho, and LDS Business College (LDSBC) exist to provide an education in an atmosphere consistent with the ideals and principles of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. That atmosphere is created and preserved through commitment to conduct that reflects those ideals and principles. Members of the faculty, administration, staff, and student body at BYU, BYU–H, BYU–I, and LDSBC are selected and retained from among those who voluntarily live the principles of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Observance of such is a specific condition of employment and admission. Those individuals who are not members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints are also expected to maintain the same standards of conduct, except church attendance. All who represent BYU, BYU–H, BYU–I, and LDSBC are to maintain the highest standards of honor, integrity, morality, and consideration of others in personal behavior. By accepting appointment on the faculty, continuing in employment, or continuing class enrollment, individuals evidence their commitment to observe the Honor Code standards approved by the Board of Trustees “at all times and ... in all places” (Mosiah 18:9).

Honor Code Statement
"We believe in being honest, true, chaste, benevolent, virtuous, and in doing good to all men. . . . If there is anything virtuous, lovely, or of good report or praiseworthy, we seek after these things." (Thirteenth Article of Faith)

As a matter of personal commitment, faculty, administration, staff, and students of Brigham Young University, Brigham Young University–Hawaii, Brigham Young University–Idaho, and LDS Business College seek to demonstrate in daily living on and off campus those moral virtues encompassed in the gospel of Jesus Christ, and will:

- Be honest
- Live a chaste and virtuous life
- Obey the law and all campus policies
- Use clean language
- Respect others
- Abstain from alcoholic beverages, tobacco, tea, coffee, and substance abuse
- Participate regularly in church services
- Observe the Dress and Grooming Standards
- Encourage others in their commitment to comply with the Honor Code

Academic Honesty Policy

The first injunction of the BYU—Hawaii Honor Code is the call to “be honest.” Students come to the university not only to improve their minds, gain knowledge, and develop skills that will assist them in their life’s work, but also to build character. “President David O.Mckay taught that character is the highest aim of education” (The Aims of a BYU—Hawaii Education, p. 6). It is the purpose of the BYU—Hawaii Academic Honesty Policy to assist in fulfilling that aim.

BYU—Hawaii students should seek to be totally honest in their dealings with others. They should complete their own work and be evaluated based upon that work. They should avoid academic dishonesty and misconduct in all its forms, including but not limited to plagiarism, fabrication or falsification, cheating, and other academic misconduct. Specific standards are found in the University Catalog and the Honor Code Office web site.

Dress and Grooming Standards

The dress and grooming of both men and women should always be modest, neat, and clean, and consistent with the dignity adherent to representing The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and any of its institutions of higher education.

Modesty and cleanliness are important values that reflect personal dignity and integrity, through which students, staff, and faculty represent the principles and standards of the Church. Members of the BYU, BYU–H, BYU–I, and LDSBC communities commit themselves to observe these standards, which reflect the direction given by the Board of Trustees and in the Church publication, “For the Strength of Youth.” Specific standards are published in the Honor Code pamphlet, class schedule, the University Catalog, and the Honor Code Office web site.

Residential Living Standards

BYU—Hawaii is committed to providing a learning atmosphere consistent with the principles of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Members of the BYU–Hawaii community should likewise commit themselves to creating such an atmosphere for students residing in approved student housing on campus and BYU–Hawaii off-campus contract housing. To achieve this distinctive ambiance, BYU–Hawaii has established living standards to help students learn some of the high ideals and principles of behavior expected at the university. Specific standards are published in pamphlets available from the serveral housing offices, class schedule, the University Catalog, and the Honor Code Office web site.
